

Week 1: August 26

The Office of the Mayor will start us off, with a welcome and presentation from Mayor John Hamilton himself, as well a presentation from the Director of Innovation. Meet in the Council Chambers at City Hall

Week 3: September 9

Staff from the Parks and Recreation Department will guide us through a walking tour of Switchyard Park, Bloomington's newest and largest park facility. Wear your walking shoes. Meet at the park.

Week 5: September 23

Enjoy a presentation and demonstration at the Bloomington Police Department HQ on E 3rd St.

Week 7: October 7

Tonight we'll learn about the many responsibilities of the Public Works Department, which includes seven separate divisions from Streets to Animal Control. Meet in the Council Chambers at City Hall.

Week 9: October 21

We will tour The Mill and learn how the Economic and Sustainable Development Department helped to turn an historic structure into a modern co-working space. Following our tour, we will return to City Hall for presentations by the Planning & Transportation and Engineering Departments. Meet in the atrium at City Hall.

Week 2 : September 2

Housing and Neighborhood Development (HAND) staff will guide us through a walking tour of the historic Near West Side Neighborhood. Meet in the atrium at City Hall and wear your walking shoes!

Week 4: September 16

Tonight we're in for a treat with an interactive presentation by the Bloomington Fire Department. Meeting location TBD.

Week 6: September 30

This is a busy evening, with presentations by the Community and Family Resources Department, the Information & Technology Services Department, and Bloomington Transit. Meet in the Council Chambers at City Hall.

Week 8: October 14

The Controller's Office will begin the evening, followed by a presentation from City of Bloomington Utilities (CBU). Meet in the conference room at the CBU administrative office, 600 E Miller Dr.

Week 10: October 28

Our final meeting will start with presentations by elected officials: a member of the City Council, and the City Clerk, followed by a reception and presentation of participant certificates. Meet in the Council Chambers.

