WHO WE ARE

ABOUT BNP

We are the B-Town Neighboring Project, an initiative begun in order to encourage better relations between off-campus students and permanent residents of the city of Bloomington.

The aims of this organization are to:

- Provide easily accessible, comprehensive information about off-campus life
- Foster relationships among neighborhoods
- Encourage respect
- Promote public safety

Get Involved!

If you want to be part of this initiative as we start out, now’s the time!
The transition from campus life to neighborhood life can be difficult to navigate. We're here to help.

Our Work so far...

COLLECTING INFO & DEFINING ISSUES
So far, we have been collecting information in Elm Heights through flyers and yard signs that link to a survey. It helped us to figure out how we could best help students and permanent residents.

Our Next Steps

Organization
Establishing a student organization that centers around the purpose of improving the relationships between student renters and their neighbors.

Opportunities for you
- Potential for leadership roles and experience
- Volunteering experience
- Positive impact on your community through above roles
- Get to know your campus and city community in a way that can be otherwise difficult

Benefits for Students

FEEL SAFER
walking through your neighborhood through knowing your neighbors and having a voice.
