

WHO WE ARE

● ABOUT BNP

We are the B-Town Neighboring Project, an initiative begun in order to encourage positive relationships between off-campus students and long-term Bloomington residents.

The aims of this organization are to:

- Provide easily accessible, comprehensive information about off-campus life
- Foster relationships among neighborhoods
- Encourage respect
- Promote public safety

JOIN US!

Now is the time to get involved! Be part of this initiative at the start, and help to shape it. YOU can have a positive impact on our community, both ON and OFF campus!

COMMUNITY built by and for students

The transition from campus life to neighborhood life can be difficult to navigate. We're here to help.

Our Work so far...

- DEFINING ISSUES
- CONNECTING WITH OFF-CAMPUS STUDENTS

We have surveyed Elm Heights neighborhood residents. Organized a block party to welcome students to Elm Heights at the start of the academic year.

Distributed information door-to-door in the Green Acres neighborhood,

Our Next Steps

Organization

We are currently recruiting students who would like to be involved in our effort to encourage positive relationships between student renters and their neighbors.

Opportunities for students

- Potential for leadership roles and experience,
- Volunteer experience,
- Positive impact on your community,
- Get to know your campus and city community in a way that can otherwise be difficult.

Benefits for Students

FEEL SAFER walking through your neighborhood through knowing your neighbors and having a voice.

SAVE MONEY by avoiding fines for rules you've missed.

MAKE CONNECTIONS with your neighbors, the city, and other students. Build Community!

KNOW your rights and responsibilities.

KNOW how you can make an impact on your community.
