

City of Bloomington
Environmental Commission

Winners of the Twelfth Annual Eco-Heroes Art Contest

April 17th, 2024

The City of Bloomington Environmental Commission is pleased to announce the winners of the eleventh annual Eco-Heroes Contest. The contest seeks to transform the natural curiosity of local youth into a passion for the world around them through their creativity as artists, writers, and craftspeople.

The theme of the 2024 Eco-Heroes Contest was “Drops to Drains: Eco-Heroes Working with the City on Stormwater Strains.” This year’s contest was a great success with over 60 outstanding entries, which represented the work of artists ranging from 3rd grade to adults. These diverse entries include drawings, fashion, dioramas, and more!

The winners of each category are as follows:

Category 1: 3rd Grade

1st place Grant Bidelman, Childs Elementary
2nd place Ariana Bradley, Childs Elementary
3rd place Nora Raymond, Childs Elementary

Category 2: 4th- 5th Grade

1st place Amelie Foreman, Bloomington Montessori
2nd place Summit Elementary 4th Graders
3rd place Hannah Chong, University Elementary

Category 3: 6th-8th Grade

1st place Callen Rayles, University Elementary
2nd place Ena Francisco-Sabanovic & Allison Pepper, Bloomington Montessori

Category 4: 9th-12th Grade

1st place Seongwon Park, Bloomington South

Category 5: Adults

1st place Garrett Baker
2nd place Jodie Friend

Congratulations to our 2024 Eco-Heroes!

If you have any questions about the Eco-Heroes contest, feel free to contact Alauna Keeley at alauna.keeley@bloomington.in.gov or Linda Thompson at thompsol@bloomington.in.gov

