Artwork and Photo Release Agreement

I/We assign and transfer to the City of Bloomington all right, title, and interest in any artwork I or my child have submitted for the City of Bloomington Environmental Commission Eco-Heroes Contest and my or my child's personal information to include my or my child's name, grade, school, and city or town of residence. My or my child's work can be used, re-used, published, and re-published in whole or in part in any medium now or hereafter known, and for any purpose whatsoever, including (but not by way of limitation) illustration, promotion, advertising, and trade.

I/We agree to allow the City of Bloomington to use said artwork and identification of me or my minor child as the artist without any compensation of any type or form to the undersigned individual, custodial parent, legal guardian, or child.

I/We assign and transfer to the City of Bloomington all right, title, and interest in any photograph(s) of myself and/or minor child which were taken on or about the date of April 19, 2025 at Switchyard Park.

I/We release the City of Bloomington, its successors, legal representatives, and assigns from all liability of any nature in the use of such photograph(s) or artwork for promotion purposes and this release shall be binding on my/our heirs, administrators, and assigns.

Further, I/We do forever release and agree to indemnify and save harmless the City of Bloomington, its successors, legal representatives, and assigns from and against any claim for damages, demands, costs, expenses, and compensation or otherwise on the part of any of me or my minor child, or their heirs, administrators, or assigns, on account of, or growing out of, the taking, reproduction, and use of said photograph(s) or artwork for promotion purposes, or the identification of me or my child as the artist.

I have read the foregoing and fully understand the contents hereof. I hereby consent to the foregoing on my or my minor child's behalf.
