

Parent and Family Resources

Report an Issue

- City of Bloomington uReport - Notify city staff about non-emergency issues such as potholes, blocked sidewalks, dangerous locations, missing signage, and a range of other topics

Family Biking

- How-To Guide Teach A Kid To Ride A Bike - This resource is meant to help caregivers teach children how to bike.
- Family Biking Mini-Guide - An introduction to family biking gear, from biking while pregnant to biking your child to school

Public Transportation

- How-to-Ride Bloomington Transit - information on how to get a fare card, find your bus stop, and ride the bus

Safe Driving and Passengers

- Car Seat and Booster Seat Safety - Many elementary-age kids need a car seat or a booster seat. This resource tells caregivers about what type of seat is appropriate for their child.

Bike Maintenance and Riding

- Intro to Bike Maintenance | REI Expert Advice - Basics of bike maintenance including changing a bike tire
- Guide to Pumping Bicycle Tires - Addressing tire pressure is the most common form of bike maintenance. This is a guide on how to properly pump up your bicycle tires
- How to Choose a Bike Lock - A guide to choosing a secure lock, as many common locks aimed at children can be easily broken
- How to Lock your Bike - A guide to properly locking your bike
- How to Wear a Helmet - A guide to safely wearing a helmet

Walking School Bus

- Walking School Bus + Bike Bus- Implementation Guidebook - A guide to developing a walking school bus
- Step by Step - How to Start a Walking School Bus at Your School - A guide to developing a walking school bus
- Lace Up Your Shoes: - A Guide to Get your Walking School Bus Moving - A guide to developing a walking school bus

Bike Bus

- Your Handy Toolkit For Starting A Bike Bus To School - A guide to developing a bike school bus

- Safe Routes How to Start a Bike Bus Mini-Guide - A guide to developing a bike school bus

Connect with the City of Bloomington

The City of Bloomington will be completing Safe Routes to School Plans, providing surveys, trainings, lessons, and events, and more. There are many opportunities to be engaged with safe routes to school. Together, we are building a future where walking, biking, and rolling are safe, accessible, and joyful options for every student. To learn more visit Bloomington.in.gov/SRTS

Student Resources

Report an Issue

- City of Bloomington uReport - Notify city staff about non-emergency issues such as potholes, blocked sidewalks, dangerous locations, missing signage, and a range of other topics

Bike Maintenance and Riding

- Intro to Bike Maintenance | REI Expert Advice - Basics of bike maintenance including changing a bike tire
- Guide to Pumping Bicycle Tires - Addressing tire pressure is the most common form of bike maintenance. This is a guide on how to properly pump up your bicycle tires
- How to Choose a Bike Lock - A guide to choosing a secure lock, as many common locks aimed at children can be easily broken
- How to Lock your Bike - A guide to properly locking your bike
- How to Wear a Helmet - A guide to safely wearing a helmet

Public Transportation

- How-to-Ride Bloomington Transit - information on how to get a fare card, find your bus stop, and ride the bus

Connect with the City of Bloomington

The City of Bloomington will be completing Safe Routes to School Plans, providing surveys, trainings, lessons, and events, and more. There are many opportunities to be engaged with safe routes to school. Together, we are building a future where walking, biking, and rolling are safe, accessible, and joyful options for every student. To learn more visit Bloomington.in.gov/SRTS